A -to- Z Supermarket Billing System

This project is a robust terminal-based billing system customized for A-to-Z Supermarket, featuring user and administrator logins for secure access control. Users can log in via their mobile numbers, while administrators use designated email IDs, ensuring distinct privileges. Using CSV files for efficient data storage and retrieval, the system manages crucial information like product details and transaction records, enhancing scalability and maintainability. Key functionalities include real-time billing, inventory management, and sales reporting. This hands-on experience underscores my ability to design and implement practical solutions for complex business requirements.
